Just forty years ago the first class of freshmen entered the Rice Institute. That first freshman class organized a football team and played a schedule involving some satisfying victories along with some overwhelming, if not spectacular, defeats.

Today the Rice Institute welcomes you, its guests, to a stadium which bears little resemblance to the ball park in which our first games were played. Our physical facilities have grown with the city of Houston and because of the interest and help of its citizens.

You are all invited to spend a little time looking around the rest of our campus. Some of you may not have seen the Fondren Library, Wiess Hall, or the Abercrombie Laboratory. We hope you will visit them.

In particular, we hope you enjoy the game you have come to see. May you not be disappointed in its outcome more than half the time.

TOUCHDOWN!

Touchdown or take off with a Beech and you'll know you've got a champion on your hands. In Beech's Executive Transport and Bonanza models you'll find the World's finest airplanes designed specifically to meet the requirements of leading executives who appreciate the importance of air travel in modern industry.

To match these unexcelled planes, J. D. Reed has built a superior sales and service organization in keeping with the high standards demanded by those who accept only the best.

BY BILL WHITMORE Rice Sports News Director

Rebounding Texas challenges grimly determined Rice this afternoon in a continuation of one of the great football rivalries of the Southwest.

This marks the 39th meeting of the Owls and Longhorns on the gridiron. In the all-time series Texas has won 24 times to 14 for Rice, but most of the edge was gained in the early and formative years for the then young Houston school which won only twice—in 1917 and 1924—in the first fifteen years of the series which began in 1915. The record is "even Steven" at ten victories apiece in the past two decades. And in a series covering nearly four decades there has yet to be a tie.

The Longhorns under the tutelage of Ed Price go into this contest a favorite on the basis of a 44-7 thrashing handed the Arkansas Razorbacks last Saturday, while the Owls were dropping a hard fought 21-14 decision to an impressive S.M.U. club. But the Rice team, a better one than the perhaps deceptive 1-3 record so far with a "suicide schedule" would indicate, considers this a "must" game and will be making an all-out effort that could pay off in an upset victory. A triumph today would put the Owls right back in the running for the conference title, and especially would they like to beat Rice's oldest football rival.

Encouraging signs to Rice fans in the narrow loss to S.M.U. were the passing of quarterback Dan Drake who completed 9 of 13 attempts, the running of Bill Frazier (who had a 71 yard touchdown scamper), Morris Stone, and Bob Garbrecht, and the pass catching of Jack Day. Garbrecht, however, and senior halfback Billy Ed Daniels are on the doubtful list for this game because of injuries.

The rugged Owl defensive line led by Don Rhoden, Richard Chapman, John Hudson, Leo Rucka, and others gets another big test against the aggressive Texas forwards sparked by guard Harley Sewell. The Longhorn offense boasts of talented performers in quarterback on the Split T aptly named "T" Jones, the leading ground gainer in the Southwest Conference in Richard Ochoa, and scoring star halfback Gib Dawson, who made four TD's in last week's rout of Arkansas.

It is a big order, but the Owl's hope to go for victory behind the blocking of such fine offensive linemen as co-captain Bill Crockett, Gene Little, Bobby Moore, "Skip" Lee, and others.

Halftime activities should be quite colorful at this first day game of the season at Rice Stadium, with the Rice and Texas bands to perform.

Rice Freshman Football

Two big home games here at the Rice Stadium feature the five-game schedule of the 1952 Rice Institute freshman football team. On Friday night, October 17th, the Owlets play the S.M.U Colts and on Friday night, October 24th, they entertain the University of Texas first year team.

Several outstanding high school players of 1951 are among the squad learning the intricacies of the Rice grid system under the tutelage of head coach Charley Moore and Harold Stockbridge.

Tickets to the two big home games of the freshman team may be purchased at the ticket window at the Rice Gymnasium.

Here is the complete schedule for the Owlets for '52:

3 October (Friday) 2 p.m. T.C.U Freshmen at Fort Worth

10 October (Friday) 8 p.m. Del Mar Junior College at Corpus Christi

17 October (Friday) 8 p.m. S.M.U. Freshmen at Rice Stadium

24 October (Friday) 8 p.m. Texas Freshmen at Rice Stadium

6 November (Thursday) 2 p.m. Texas A. & M. Freshmen at College Station

MEDICAL, TRAINING FACILITIES FOR RICE ATHLETICS

Trainer Eddie Wojecki

The finest in medical and training care and the most modern equipment available is provided athletes in all sports at Rice Institute.

This important phase of an athletic program often is overlooked by spectators, whose chief interest is in the action on the playing field. However, there are a number of persons whose services "behind the scenes" mean a great deal toward having a successful all-round athletic program.

Dr. Hugh Welch has served as team physician for many years, and with consulting physicians Dr. Jack Brannon and Dr. E. T. Smith the Rice players have the services of an excellent medical staff.

One of the busiest men on the Rice athletic scene is head athletic trainer Eddie Wojecki. His modern training quarters are where the athletes receive top care for injuries, and where the players get advice on diet and myriad subjects.

As a tribute to his ability, Wojecki received a signal honor for Rice Institute and himself last summer when he was named head trainer for the American Olympic team that competed in Helsinki, Finland.

Ably assisting in the training room are student trainers Louis Loeser, a sophomore, and Howard Schaumburg, former Owl "mascot" and now in high school.

The man who looks after the storing, issuing, and repairing of the Owls' athletic equipment is J. B. Sorsby, an employee of the Institute for over 20 years.

The student manager of the football team is Norman Moore, who looks after the equipment on the field, assists in detail work in the dressing room, and handles a number of duties.

The Institute is named for its founder, the late William Marsh Rice of Houston. Rice Institute has a limited enrollment with a student body of about 1,500. In effect, all Rice students are on scholarships as no tuition is charged those accepted. The school's picturesque campus covers 300 acres in Houston's southwest section.

A major building program has seen several million dollars in new construction on the campus.

New structures include the Fondren Library, Abercrombie Engineering Laboratory, M. D. Anderson class room building, Wiess Hall, dormitory for men, and the Rice Stadium and Rice Gymnasium. The Fondren Library, one of the finest and most modern in the nation, contains about 250,000 volumes.

UNIVERSITY OF

ED PRICE, Head Coach

D. X. BIBLE, Athletic Director

Now in its 60th season of fielding a football team, the University of Texas this afternoon faces one of its oldest and staunchest rivals in the Rice Institute Owls.

The largest school of higher learning in Texas, the state university has an enrollment of 11,823 at the main school in Austin. There are several branch schools including the Medical School at Galveston and the School of Dentistry at Houston. Judge James P. Hart is chancellor of the University, while Dr. J. C. Dolley is acting president.

Dana X. Bible is athletic director of an outstanding nine-sport intercollegiate athletic program. Mr. Bible came to the University fifteen years ago as head football coast and athletic director, relinquishing the active coaching role a few years ago to concentrate on the increasing duties of athletic director. The head grid coach now is Edwin Booth Price, a member of the Texas athletic staff since 1936, less three years service overseas as a Naval officer during the war.

CHAMPIONSHIP AND BOWL RECORD OF THE RICE OWLS

Rice Institute has fielded a football team for forty years, and in that time the Owls have provided many thrills for grid fans of the Southwest and the nation.

The Owls have played from coast to coast with intersectional competition against teams representing some of the country's finest schools.

Many honors have come the way of Rice teams in the past. The Owls have won the Southwest Conference championship on three occasions—in 1934, 1937, and 1949—and shared the title with Arkansas in 1946.

Rice has been represented in three major bowl games, and the Owls were victorious on each occasion. The 1937 team beat Colorado 28-14 in the Cotton Bowl classic, the 1946 club stopped Tennessee 8-0 in the Orange Bowl, and the 1949 team trimmed the North Carolina Tarheels 27-13 in the Cotton Bowl.

In addition, many other honors have come the way of Rice players and coaches. Several players have been named to All-American teams, and a host of Owls have been accorded All-Southwest Conference honors.

Special honors of last year saw end Bill Howton selected on many All-American teams and invited to play for the College All-Stars, while along with teammate end Sonny McCurry he played under Rice coach Jess Neely in the East-West Shrine game for the benefit of crippled children last December.
